When at a show your there to enjoy, relax and get stuck into the surroundings, but when your vehicle is there, its there to look good and be a star in front of the crowds.

With that in mind even if you have it detailed before-hand, your vehicle or fleet will always have travelling to the show to contend with. This brings all sorts of elements that may need to be rectified. From road debris to greasy handprints. These never look good on a show piece.

Our team are on hand all day and even night to make sure your vehicles look their best throughout the duration of the show.

We are also on hand to deal with any unexpected mishaps that do happen when humans are around vehicles. We've had all sorts that may happen from coffee spills to scratches needing attention. The team will be on hand for longer duration shows making sure fingerprints, dusting, and waxing is carried out to keep that show shine going.

We can also cater for large show stands with multiple vehicles that may need a dedicated team to look after them throughout the duration of the show.
